Description :

Prsentation de l'diteur#1New York Timesbestselling author ofWomen Food and GodA life-changing book.OprahIn this moving and intimate book, Geneen Roth, bestselling author of Feeding the Hungry Heart and Breaking Free from Compulsive Eating, shows how dieting and emotional eating often become a substitute for intimacy. Drawing on her own painful personal experiences, as well as the candid stories of those she has helped in her seminars, Roth examines the crucial issues that surround emotional eating: need for control, dependency on melodrama, desire for what is forbidden, and the belief that one wrong move can mean catastrophe. She shows why many people overeat in an attempt to satisfy their emotional hunger, and why weight loss frequently just uncovers a new set of problems. But her welcome message is that change is possible. This book will help readers break destructive, self-perpetuating patterns and learn to satisfy all the hungers—physical and emotional—that make us human. From the Trade Paperback edition. From Publishers Weekly: This is the fourth book (Feeding the Hungry Heart, etc.) generated by the seminars Roth conducts at her Berkeley, Calif., home for people who believe that if they were thin, they would be happy. But the author makes clear that losing weight doesn't automatically gain one success, respect and love. Roth's personal story and those of her clients as related here exemplify the need to discover why the overweight are addicted to food. Citing her own deprived childhood, the author demonstrates that gluttons seek the reliable comforts of eating instead of closeness with humans who might become abusive (like her mother) or vanish (like her father). Those bent on self-improvement will find that the book merely repeats well-known principles in a melodramatic fashion. Copyright 1991 Reed Business Information, Inc. Revue de presse: "A life-changing book." Oprah: A rare and special book that touches our inner selves with extraordinary courage, authenticity, and beauty. I have seen very few books with this kind of clarity and human depth. It will move you to tears and to joy. It will entertain and delight you, and it will make you a deeper and more compassionate human being. John Robbins, author of Diet for a New America: SPECTACULAR! I laughed and I cried. . . a tender and daring book that you'll never forget. Laura Davis, co-author of The Courage to Heal: I SEE MIRACLES IN MY LIFE EVERY DAY, AND ROTH IS ONE OF THE PEOPLE WHO HELPED MAKE THAT HAPPEN. Anne Lamott in Mademoiselle: When Food is Love is Roth's seminal work. This is a big, beautiful, and important book. I cannot say enough about it. I hope everyone reads it. Natalie Goldberg, author of Writing Down the Bones: She tells of her own experiences with a non-blink frankness cushioned by the gracefulness of her prose. Chicago Tribune: This book is A) good enough to eat, B) nourishing to the heart. Jack Kornfield, Buddhist teacher, co-author of Seeking the Heart of Wisdom
